

Equestrian Center receives $10,000

The Northwestern Pennsylvania Autism Society recently presented a check for $10,000 to Therapeutic Riding Equestrian Center to establish a scholarship fund for children with ASD diagnosis, as well as for operating and equipment expenses. Wendy Zukowski; left, Northwestern Pennsylvania Autism Society board secretary; Jan Formichella, second from left, board president; and Diane Baer, right, board treasurer, present the check to Tina Mengine, TREC executive director.

Article published December 31, 2006, Erie Times-News