Golf tournament benefits local charities

Organizers of the Jensen Landis Jr. Memorial Golf Outing recently presented $11,300 in proceeds from the tournament to five local charities. The tournament is held every year in memory of Rich Jensen and his nephew, Jeff Landis Jr., who were killed by lightning while golfing 10 years ago. At the tournament, front row, from left, are Jan Stork, regional director of the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Greater Pennsylvania and Southern West Virginia; Jesse Lawrence, Make-A-Wish recipient; Julie Kresge, director of development at Safe Harbor Behavioral Health; and John Trombetta, executive director of the Foundation for Free Enterprise Education. In the second row, from left, are John Jensen and Barb Jensen, relatives of the victims; Tina Mengine, executive director of Therapeutic Riding Equestrian Center; relatives Jeff Landis and Linda Landis; and Rita Scrimenti, development officer of the Neighborhood Art House.
